Confidentiality Statement

When undertaking work for or on behalf of We Are Survivors, you will often need to have access to confidential information which may include, for example:

- Personal information about individuals who are clients or otherwise involved in the activities organised by We Are Survivors
- Information about the internal business of We Are Survivors
- Personal information about staff or volunteers working for We Are Survivors

We Are Survivors is committed to keeping this information confidential; in order to protect people and We Are Survivors itself. 'Confidential' means that all access to information must be on a "need to know" basis and properly authorised basis. You must use only the information you have been authorised to use, and for purposes that have been authorised. You may not during or after the termination of your employment, disclose to anyone other than in the proper course of your employment or where required by law, any information of a confidential nature relating to the company or its business or customers. Breach of this clause may lead to dismissal without notice.

You should also be aware that under the latest Data Protection and Governance legislation, unauthorised access to data about individuals is a criminal offence.

You must assume that information is confidential unless you know that it is intended by, We Are Survivors to be made public and you have permission to make this information available.

You must also be particularly careful not to disclose confidential information to unauthorised people or cause a breach of security. In particular you must:

- not compromise or seek to evade security measures (including computer passwords)
- be particularly careful when sending information to other agencies and organisations
- not gossip about confidential information, either with colleagues or people outside We Are Survivors
- not disclose information, especially over the telephone, unless you are sure that you know who you are disclosing it to, and that they are authorised to have it

If you are in doubt about whether to disclose information or not, do not guess. Withhold the information while you check with an appropriate person whether the disclosure is appropriate. Your confidentiality obligations continue to apply indefinitely after you have stopped working or volunteering for We Are Survivors.

I have read and understand the Confidentiality Policy and this supplementary statement and in signing this statement, confirm that I fully accept my responsibilities regarding confidentiality.
